

New Owner Puts Sugar Coating on Takeover Deal

Management Buy-In of Regency Mowbray Co Ltd

Strategic Corporate Finance has brought the sweet taste of success to a management buy-in, by businessman Jeremy Mallin, at the Regency Mowbray Company Ltd. of Staffordshire, whose quality products including chocolate and fruit sauces go all over the world.

Jeremy, who was advised at all stages of the transaction by Strategic Corporate Finance has for the last few years worked as a consultant in the food production sector and is now at the helm of Regency Mowbray, which has an international reputation for supplying the food industry with a variety of ingredients.

Founded in 1963, the company has grown rapidly through a process of expansion and acquisition and now offers one of the widest products ranges available from any food ingredients company anywhere in the world.
