

Sale of Taylor's Eye Witness Limited

Strategic Corporate Finance provided advisory services in connection with the sale of Taylor's Eye Witness Limited to an Employee Ownership Trust (EOT)

Taylor's Eye Witness is a Sheffield-based designer and manufacturer of kitchen knives, cutlery, scissors, tableware and accessories, which can trace its history back to 1838.

The EOT will run the company for the benefit of its employees, safeguarding its future as an independent company. The EOT's objectives are to maintain the brand's position in the market and continue to enhance the company's reputation for quality and innovation.

SCF director Greg Barker provided advice on valuation and deal structuring in support of the deal.
