

Universal Drilling & Cutting Equipment Ltd

Buyout of Universal Drilling and Cutting Equipment Ltd ("UDCE") from Nitto Kohki (Japan)

Strategic Corporate Finance advised a team comprising management and investors on the buyout of UDCE from Japanese group Nitto Kohki.

UDCE specialises in the design, development and manufacture of equipment which cuts accurate holes in metal quickly and cost effectively. They manufacture electro-magnetic drilling systems and annular cutters which provide the efficiency and accuracy of bench and machine tools in portable, versatile units.

Strategic Corporate Finance gave initial advice, worked with management and investors to formulate a deal acceptable to all involved and advised through to legal completion.
